Before you purchase just anyone's taper, take a good look at what you're getting...

The industry standard General Taper is an original that is backed by over 60 years of heritage and experience. All parts are manufactured in house by our modern machine shop. Our personnel are on hand 365 days a year / 24 hrs. a day to assist you in case of emergencies.

So when you stop and think about all of this, and the fact that there are over 10,000 of our units sold to date, why would you buy anything other than The Original?

Same Great People...

Same Great Machine!
